Course Modules		Brief Course Module Description
SP0501 – Developing Listening Skills		This module explains how listening forms the foundation for all language learning. Teachers learn strategies to strengthen attention, auditory discrimination, and comprehension through stories, music, and daily routines.
SP0502 – Encouraging Spoken Language		Focuses on how children develop vocabulary and sentence structure through interaction. Teachers learn responsive communication techniques that expand speech without correcting or pressuring children.
SP0503 – Rhymes, Songs, and Phonics Readiness		Introduces phonological awareness through rhymes, rhythm, and sound play. Teachers understand how these activities prepare children for later reading without introducing formal phonics.
SP0504 – Story Reading Techniques		Covers interactive read-aloud methods that improve engagement and understanding. Teachers learn how to ask meaningful questions and connect stories to children lived experiences.
SP0505 – Print Awareness in Preschool		Explains how children naturally become aware of print in their environment. Teachers learn to introduce letters and symbols through labels, charts, and daily classroom use.
SP0506 – Supporting Multilingual Children		Addresses language development in bilingual and multilingual classrooms. Teachers learn strategies that respect home languages while supporting school-language exposure.
SP0507 – Developing Pre-Writing Skills		Focuses on strengthening hand muscles, coordination, and control before writing. Teachers learn play-based activities that build readiness without forcing pencil work.
SP0508 – Language Delays and Support Strategies		Introduces early indicators of language delay in preschoolers. Teachers learn classroom-based support strategies and when to suggest professional guidance sensitively.
SP0509 – Home–School Language Partnerships		Highlights the role of families in language development. Teachers learn how to guide parents with simple, realistic language-building practices at home.
