Learning Objective : This course strengthens teachers’ classroom communication skills to improve clarity, student understanding, engagement, and behaviour. Teachers learn how verbal and non-verbal communication, questioning, feedback, and listening skills directly influence learning outcomes and classroom relationships in primary grades.

Course Modules	Brief Course Module Descriptions
SP2601 – Teacher Talk and Instructional Clarity	This module examines how the way teachers speak affects student understanding and behaviour. Teachers learn to give clear, age-appropriate instructions and explanations. Common communication habits that confuse learners are identified and corrected.
SP2602 – Questioning Techniques that Promote Thinking	Focuses on using open-ended and probing questions to deepen understanding. Teachers learn how effective questioning encourages participation, reasoning, and curiosity. The difference between recall questions and thinking questions is highlighted.
SP2603 – Giving Constructive and Meaningful Feedback	Explores how feedback influences motivation and learning. Teachers learn to move beyond praise and criticism toward feedback that guides improvement. Language that supports effort and growth is emphasised.
SP2604 – Managing Classroom Discussions Effectively	Introduces strategies for facilitating respectful and inclusive discussions. Teachers learn how to encourage participation while managing dominant or silent students. Classroom dialogue is structured without becoming teacher dominated.
SP2605 – Communicating Expectations and Boundaries Clearly	Focuses on how clarity in expectations reduces confusion and misbehaviour. Teachers learn consistent language for rules, routines, and consequences. Calm firmness is emphasised over repeated warnings.
SP2606 – Non-Verbal Communication and Teacher Presence	Explores the impact of tone, facial expressions, posture, and eye contact. Teachers learn how non-verbal cues influence authority and approachability. Conscious teacher presence is developed.
