Participants learn how to move beyond administrative supervision and actively influence instructional quality, curriculum coherence, assessment practices, and academic outcomes at an institutional level.

Course Modules	Brief Course Module Descriptions
SP5401 – Understanding Instructional Leadership in Schools	This module clarifies the role of school leaders as leaders of learning, not just managers. Participants explore how leadership decisions directly impact classroom instruction and student outcomes. The shift from inspection to instructional support is emphasised.
SP5402 – Defining Academic Excellence in a School Context	Focuses on what academic excellence truly means beyond board results. Leaders examine learning quality, student understanding, and skill development. Alignment between vision, curriculum, and outcomes is discussed.
SP5403 – Observing Teaching and Providing Academic Feedback	Explores how leaders can observe classrooms purposefully and provide constructive feedback. Participants learn how to support teachers without creating fear or defensiveness. Feedback is framed as professional growth.
SP5404 – Curriculum Alignment and Academic Coherence	Examines vertical and horizontal curriculum alignment across grades and subjects. Leaders learn how gaps, overlaps, and inconsistencies affect learning. Strategies for curriculum coherence are introduced.
SP5405 – Using Assessment Data for Academic Improvement	Focuses on analysing assessment data to identify strengths, gaps, and trends. Leaders learn to use data diagnostically rather than punitively. Evidence-informed academic planning is emphasised.
SP5406 – Sustaining a Culture of High Expectations and Support	Explores how leaders balance accountability with support. Participants learn how to set high academic standards while providing resources and professional development. Sustainability of excellence is prioritised.
