Learning Objective : This course equips principals, school leaders, and academic coordinators to lead inclusive education at a school-wide level. Participants learn how to design policies, systems, and cultures that support students with diverse learning needs and special educational requirements, while ensuring equity, dignity, legal compliance, and academic integrity across the institution.

Course Modules	Brief Course Module Descriptions
SP6001 – Understanding Inclusion and Special Educational Needs at the School Level	This module explores what inclusive education means beyond classroom accommodation. Leaders learn about diverse learning needs, disabilities, and neurodiversity from a systems perspective. Inclusion is framed as a leadership responsibility rather than an individual teacher's task.
SP6002 – Legal, Ethical, and Policy Frameworks for Inclusive Education	Focuses on national and international guidelines, child rights, and school-level compliance responsibilities. Leaders learn how policy gaps expose institutions to ethical and legal risk. Clear governance structures are emphasised.
SP6003 – Designing Inclusive School Policies and Support Systems	Explores how admissions, assessment, discipline, and promotion policies affect inclusion. Leaders learn how to design systems that support learners without lowering standards. Policy alignment and clarity are prioritised.
SP6004 – Leading Teachers and Staff for Inclusive Practice	Focuses on building teacher capacity and confidence to support diverse learners. Leaders learn how to provide training, resources, and guidance without overwhelming staff. Shared responsibility is emphasised.
SP6005 – Collaboration with Parents, Specialists, and External Agencies	Examines effective collaboration with families, counsellors, therapists, and special educators. Leaders learn how to coordinate support while maintaining confidentiality and professional boundaries. Partnership is prioritised.
SP6006 – Monitoring Inclusion, Equity, and Student Progress	Focuses on reviewing inclusion practices through data, feedback, and outcomes. Leaders learn how to monitor effectiveness without stigmatising students. Continuous improvement and accountability are emphasised.
